

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LES PRODUCTIONS DU PALAIS AND LE GRAND PRIX SKI-DOO DE VALCOURT TEAM UP FOR THE PRESENTATION OF A MAJOR MUSICAL SHOW

Sherbrooke, December 22nd 2009- Les Productions du Palais, event production firm, is proud to announce a new partnership with le Grand Prix Ski-Doo de Valcourt 2010, presented by La Capitale assurances générales, in the production of the Saturday night musical event at the Valcourt arena.

Consequently, on Saturday, February 20th, 8:30 p.m., festival-goers will have the opportunity to attend a major musical event titled The Pink Floyd Story, performed by the Montreal based band Eclipse.

Eclipse, composed of 5 musicians and 3 backup singers, will revive Pink Floyd's masterpieces from Astronomy Domine until the most recent High Hopes, as well as an integral rendition of the Dark Side of the Moon album.

Pink Floyd fans will be blown away by Eclipse's musical accuracy, backed by laser props, an outstanding light show, multimedia projections reminiscent of the 80's and 90's major tours and video projections of original Pink Floyd videos.

«The montrealers are on their way to reach the Australian Pink Floyd Show level. Their impressive overall performance is a treat for your ears... and eyes.». Pierre O. Nadeau, Le Journal de Québec.

Tickets are on sale at a special advanced sale price of 25$ (taxes included) until Saturday, January 16th. Regular price 30$ after the 16th and at the door. Tickets sold at the Granada Theater ticket outlet (53, Wellington St. North - 819-565-5656), via the Internet at www.ovation.qc.ca and at the Valcourt arena: 866-532-7543.
